

Expenses Online – Monitor Claim Approvals Video Transcript

Data within the system updates as approval action is taken on claims, allowing claim users to see the status of their claims as they change and who they are awaiting action from. If enabled, the system is also capable of sending SMS and email alerts to claim users, letting them know when their claims have been approved or rejected - and to approver users, letting them know when they have claims awaiting approval action from them.