

Expenses Online – Reports Video Transcript

Administrator users can make use of customised searches to find data within the system. The system can also generate reports based on internal data, to be used for individual use or in meetings. The report is customised to the client and displays the client's logo at the top. Every report can be exported from the system in multiple file formats, such as PDF and CSV.